

INSPIRING COMMUNITY PROJECTS

A panel discussion hosted by:
Lion LJ Loch
ALPHA CONSULTING

SATURDAY 1:50PM

proudly sponsored by BUSINESS
EVENTS
PERTH

ANDREW KELLY

CEO
The Antarctic Science Foundation

Andrew Kelly is CEO of The Antarctic Science Foundation. Across two decades Andrew has witnessed the power of generosity, assisting supporters to realise the change they want to see in the world through transformational gifts to Youth Off The Streets, The Smith Family, The Refugee Advice and Casework Service (RACS), the Society of St Vincent De Paul and Children's Medical Research Institute.

CINNAMON EVANS

CEO CERES INC.

Cinnamon Evans is the CEO of CERES Inc, an integrated system of social enterprise, urban farming and sustainability education based across four locations on Wurundjeri Country, Melbourne. CERES counters the prevailing story of separation with stories of connectedness and love. Through Cinnamon's leadership, CERES has retained its collaborative community spirit while scaling and becoming a large and diverse trade-based organisation.

JASWINDER SINGH

SECRETARY
Sikh Volunteers
Australia

Migrated to Australia in October 2014

Grad.Dip in Mechanical Engineering and Pursuing Bachelor of Community Development in Victoria.

Hobby: - Team Building and Social Interaction.

Volunteer with Sikh Volunteers Australia and Sikh Interfaith Council of Victoria

Reason for Volunteering: Gives me the sense that I am not just living for myself, but my actions bring a smile to someones face. It helps me achieve inner peace and happiness

JOSEPHENE DUFFY

CEO
Stephanie Alexander
Kitchen Garden
Foundation

Josephene Duffy is the CEO of the Stephanie Alexander Kitchen Garden Foundation. Josephene has been with the Foundation since 2008, fulfilling various roles involving communications, partnerships, knowledge brokering and government relations, providing her with in-depth experience of every facet of the Foundation and its community. The Foundation's vision is to see children form positive food habits for life. We do that through supporting schools and early learning centres to deliver pleasurable food education through a kitchen garden program model.