A bid form, copy of the Forum Policy Manual as it pertains to inspections, costs, and Host committee guidelines will be provided with each request. A preliminary detailed budget with known venue costs must be included with each bid. The Budget must include an estimate of the minimum number of attendees required to break even.

The dates established by the Forum Planning Committee shall not conflict with a major religious or national holiday.

Consideration should be given to the availability of places of worship for all religious denominations.

The dates for the ANZI-Pacific forum will be the last full week in August/first full week in September in accordance with the International Board Policy.

Three copies of the completed bid form must be returned by July 31 of the year two years before the calendar year of the current Forum. A decision is to be made within 30 days and notified to all parties including the International Board. One copy to each member of the Executive Standing Committee.

Districts within Multiple Districts, 201, 202 or 307 are invited to submit a bid to host subsequent forums.

The accompanying table of Countries by year, 2026 to 2029 is the suggested allocation by host nation for future ANZI-Pacific Forums. This table has been prepared on the basis of population, location, facilities, Lions membership, anticipated attendance at Forums, and the domicile of the serving International Director.

Cycle of Countries Proposed to Host Future ANZI-Pacific Forums

- 2027 – MD 307 Indonesia
- 2028 – MD 201 – Australia
- 2029 – MD 202 – New Zealand

Site Inspection

The Chairperson will be responsible for coordination, facilitation and implementing the Site inspection(s) and will report to the Forum Executive Standing Committee.

The Site Inspection shall consist of meetings and evaluations with the hotel management, convention centre management, convention bureau, host committee, and others who may be involved in providing services to the Forum.

The Chairperson will provide a detailed report outlining the facilities, cost, and other pertinent data to the first scheduled meeting of the Executive Standing Committee at least two years prior to the date of the proposed forum. This report will recommend in order of preference those sites which best meet the needs of the Forum.

The Executive Standing Committee shall recommend a site for the following year(s) bid to the International Board Members from Constitutional Area 7
